Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .that stand up like landmarks pointing to eternal things. Captain Davy, who sings his great hymns as he watches his Light, is like an old manpsalm, and Captain Daddy s comments to Janet are whimsical scriptures, half of the sea and half of the human heart Literary Notes Paul Anthony, Christian, by Hiram W. Hayes, is written with more skill than is usual with propagandist novels. The scenes are laid in Burma and the teachings of Christian Science are intercalated with the story of a love affair between a Burmese Prince and an American girl missionary in such a way as to make them more readable and plausible than they are in Science and Health. (Reid Publishing Co., Boston, $1.50.).More is the succinct title of a study of present financial conditions, written in a very businesslike style by an American business man, Mr. George Otis Draper. He discusses in a positive, plain-spoken and somewhat superficial way the remedies that have been proposed for existing evils, and opposes anarchism because of its confiscation, socialism because of its supervision, regulation because of its incompetence, and tariff reform because it would destroy industries. His remedy is more, an increase of wealth thru greater personal economy and industrial efficiency, instead of endeavoring to secure a greater equality of distribution thru legislation. (Little, Brown Co., Boston, $i.).The American people, East and West, are watching with interest and hope the career of Governor Hughes, of New York. They have great confidence in...
