HDAM and Eve decfdd to enter the Garden of Hden and thtre abide forever in love and peace, for this is said to be the most beautiful location in the Universe. So Adam applied to a certain minister for a key to this heavenly spot. Now Adam and Eve had kaewn each other quite a long time in the Spiritual State and they had come to love each other very dearly. Up to this time their love had found spiritual expression only and it had continued to grow and deepen till it became almost an ecstasy. The divi-ity of all created things was so apparent to these fair souls, that life seemed like an endless enchanting dream to them. The one and only thing needful to change this sweet dream into a tangible (material) reality was entiar.ee to the Garden of Eden, they thought-At least, Adam was confident of this, for he was a very practical man and believed he could have still more ecstasy here than he had yet known. Eve was not so fully persuaded of this, but Adam besought her and gave such alluring descriptions of the bliss in store for them, that after a tine Eve began to think possibly...
